Customer Reviews

"I was happy with my decision right from the start. The initial quotation was reasonable, the person quoting knowledgeable and helpful. The removalists took care with my items. It was a pleasure to deal with you, and easy to organise the move interstate. I'm also happy to recommend Cherrybrook Removals to family and friends." (C. Summers)

"The team are just fantastic. They arrived at my home on time and packed my things up with such care. Everyone I have dealt with from the team was polite, friendly and helpful. I would strongly recommend Cherrybrook Removals to anyone who requires storage." (M. Miller)

"Thanks for another great move. I used another company once and it was a huge mistake. I recommend you to all of my friends." (C. Daley)

Countdown

6 weeks to go

- Call Cherrybrook Removals and book in your quote and moving date. We often book out all 12 of our trucks many weeks in advance, so best to call sooner rather than later!
- If there are items you will not be taking to your new home, point these out during your quote.
- Create a floor plan of your new home (if known) and plan the placement of furniture.
- Arrange for disposal of garden chemicals, paint, fuel etc.
- Arrange to have your mail redirected or held.
- Notify schools and day care centres of transfers if applicable.
- Arrange for transfer of your car, home and contents insurance.
- Arrange for disposal of items you will not be taking to your new home.
- Cancel or redirect subscriptions to newspapers and magazines.
- Call Cherrybrook Removals to arrange delivery of your packing cartons.
- Begin packing non-essential items.

2 weeks to go

- Continue packing non-essential items.
- Label every carton by content and by room.
- If your boat or trailer is to be included with the load, prepare for its removal.
- Return any borrowed items such as library books.
- Check the garden, garage, shed and under the house for items you may have forgotten to pack.
- Arrange for pet vaccinations if required.
- If you are transporting your car, make arrangements for this.
- In most of cases, chests of drawers need to be emptied before they are moved. Check with Cherrybrook Removals if you are unsure.

1 week to go

- Establish cut off dates for electricity, gas and landline phones.
- Ensure travel arrangements for your pets have been confirmed.
- Drain fuel from lawn mower and empty gas cylinders.
- Arrange for carpet cleaning and general cleaning if required.
- Inform Cherrybrook Removals of your settlement time if applicable.
- Arrange a mail re-direction if required.

2 days to go

- Pack a bag with the items you will need immediately after the move. Keep this in your car so it can be easily found on the day of your move.
- Arrange to block off parking for the removals trucks if required.
- Do the laundry.
- Dispose of any remaining chemicals, flammables and garbage.
- Complete any packing that professional packers will not be completing. If you are moving into storage, remove batteries from any items you are packing.
- Make a list of the things you want the removalists to pack onto the truck last and unpack first.

1 day to go

- If you are having your items professionally packed, this service will occur today.
- Separate the items you do not wish to be packed.
- Defrost your fridge, clean it out and dry it.
- Dispose of any perishable food in your kitchen or organise an esky to transport food to your new home.
- If your house will be vacant for a while, notify police and neighbours.
- Reserve space for truck.
- Recommend tea bags for fridges to storage.

MOVING DAY

- Gather your valuables such as electronics, handbags, jewelry etc and place these items safely in your car so they are not lost or packed in the truck.
- Disassemble beds if it has not been included in your removal service.
- Collect all house keys, ensure electricity and gas meters have been read.
- If renting, leave keys with your real estate agent.
- As your removals truck is being loaded, walk around the house, garden, garage and shed and check all items have been removed.
- Turn off the power to the home.
- Do one final check of the whole home to ensure all items have been collected by your removalists.
- Lock the house.
- On arrival at your new home, direct the removalists where to place each item of furniture.
- Once the truck has been completely unloaded, check the truck to ensure it is empty.
- Organise to change the locks in your new home if desired.

AFTER YOUR MOVING DAY

- Unpack your boxes. If you have purchased boxes from Cherrybrook Removals, you can arrange a pickup from us (within Sydney metro). You will receive a partial refund for boxes that have been returned.
- Ensure boxes have been flattened but not folded. Folding the flattened boxes damages them.
- Clean, crush paper can also be packed into boxes and returned to us.
